TeamSAI Consulting Adds Executive Depth

Denver, Co. – TeamSAI, Inc. aviation and business innovation consultants, is pleased to announce that Tom Cooper has joined the firm as an Executive Consultant.

Tom joins the firm with 19 years of airline and MRO experience with Delta Air Lines where his responsibilities included Director – Aircraft Engineering, Director – Programs and Planning and General Manager – Technical Operations Planning. For the last two years, Tom has shown his flexibility and the transferability of his leadership skills as Project Director for Foster's Wine Estates leading design, construction and start-up of a large production facility. Throughout his career, Tom has been a proven, results oriented, leader with strong technical and business skills. He possesses extensive experience in planning, forecasting, engineering, project, supplier, and quality management. He earned a Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering from Georgia Institute of Technology and a Master of Business Administration from Georgia State University.

Chris Doan, TeamSAI President & CEO, said: "We are extremely pleased to have attracted Tom to join our airline and MRO consulting practice. Tom is widely respected throughout the industry and has been sought after due to his demonstrated ability to work across all aspects of the business, effectively dealing with complex issues and bringing timely closure to major efforts. His recent work with Foster's is a testament to his flexibility and creativity in transporting his skills into other industries. Tom's addition to TeamSAI Consulting continues to grow our commitment to building the practice with proven aviation leaders."

TeamSAI is a Denver based practice of strategic & tactical management and operations consulting, serving all aspects of the aviation community including airlines, airports, manufacturers, MROs, and corporate/fractional operations. TeamSAI is a co-producer of the annual world MRO Forecast, and is a partner with McGraw-Hill's Aviation Week in their new MRO Prospector web based market development tool for the MRO industry.

SAI is synonymous with Strategy ... Action ... Insight.
